The Durham Art Gallery 2019 Fallis Scholarship for the Arts

The Durham Art Gallery announces the 2019 Fallis Scholarship for the Arts. The gallery is committed to supporting young artists. Under the program, one (1) $3,000 scholarship will be awarded. Fallis Scholarship for the Arts aims to alleviate some of the financial burden associated with pursuing post-secondary education.

ELIGIBILITY

Applicants must have been accepted or are enrolled in an arts program at a post-secondary institution. The program may be at a college, university or a recognized art institute. The applicant must reside in the area of Grey-Bruce. The scholarship may not be awarded more than once to any applicant.

REQUIREMENTS

Three (3) original works of art that reflect their area of study and career path for the jurors to consider. The art works must not be copies of another artist's, or reproductions. All works must be labeled with the artist's name, title of work, date and medium.

Accompanying the submission of art work the applicant must provide:

1. a letter outlining the applicant's career objectives
2. an acceptance letter and proof of enrollment from secondary institution
3. a current CV

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: FRIDAY, JULY 26, 2019

Send digital images of artworks to info@durhamartgallery.com with Subject: "Fallis Scholarship Application" along with requirements as set out above.

1. Still images must be either JPEG or TIFF files, maximum dimensions of 1024 x 768 at 72 dpi. Images must be correctly rotated for viewing.
2. Files are to be named in the following format: (Lastname_Firstname_#) (Example: Chap_Elaine_01.tif)
3. If the files are too large to email, the applicant will need to provide an active link for the jury to access the files
4. Alternatively, mail application prior to the deadline to:
